In and Around Canary District

Walkable local retail includes: Opus Glow, Dark Horse, Tori's bakeshop, Shop Task, TD Bank, Expedia CruiseShipCentres, Running Room, Think Fitness, Fuel+, SuhkoThai, Souk Tabule, Gears and a convenience store.

At Canary Commons, the possibilities to live well are endless. Begin by nourishing your body with the delicious, healthy food at St. Lawrence Market, or the farmer's market at Evergreen Brick Works. From fresh fish, to farm-to-table organic meats, fruits, and vegetables, shopping locally has never been easier or more accessible.

Take an evening walk along Front Street Promenade, or the Distillery District; or, ditch the pavement altogether and feel the sand between your toes at Cherry Beach or Sugar Beach. See the art at Underpass Park, or drive along Gardiner Expressway and get a view of cityscape. Walk, run, or bike along the many scenic trails at Corktown Common Park, or the Don Valley Trail, and stay connected to nature right within the city. A lifestyle of wellness is within reach at Canary Commons.

Canary District in the City

Made for Making Moves

- Downtown Toronto and Financial District is an 5 minute drive.
- Frequent and easy access to the TTC 514 Cherry streetcar, buses, and nearby subway stations, getting to the Financial District, Eaton's Centre, or Union Station is quick and effortless.
- Or, ride into the downtown core and get in some cardio with the easy Toronto Bike Share rental in 10 minutes.
- For those with a slightly further destination, the Don Valley Parkway and Gardiner Expressway are only a short drive away, or you can grab a train ticket at the future Smarttrack GO Station, and sit back and enjoy the ride outside the city. Need to go even further out? The Billy Bishop Airport is the perfect nearby option for stress-free travel.

A Partnership Built on Success

Dream is the new name of Dundee Realty Corporation, one of Canada's leading real estate companies. Over the last 30 years, Dundee has built a name synonymous with uncompromising quality and service as neighbourhood developers and home and condominium builders. Now as Dream, the company's values remain the same. But with the new name comes a new clarity and statement of purpose: to build better communities to live in and work in. In Toronto, Dream has successfully developed numerous residential projects including Pure Spirit, Clear Spirit, and Gooderham Condominiums in the Distillery Historic District, The King Edward Private Residences, as well as the Opus Tower and the highly-sought after Pantages Tower. This is Dream.

Kilmer has been a leader and innovator in public private partnerships. Along with its deep experience and relationships in this arena, the company brings an entrepreneurial and solutions-driven approach to project delivery. As the private investment holding company of Canadian business leader and philanthropist, Larry Tanenbaum O.C., the firm has a long-term horizon of vision for its investments. Kilmer seeks to be involved in projects that improve the fabric of Canada and the communities in which its infrastructure and real estate divisions Kilmer Developments and Kilmer Brownfield operate. Through Kilmer Group's investment in Maple Leaf Sports and Entertainment, the company has been a part of developing the Air Canada Centre and the related adjacent real estate, and partnering with the City of Toronto on the operation of BMO Field and the Ricoh Coliseum.
