Hey you,

From the moment we set eyes on the kingxdufferin neighbourhood,
we knew we were destined to be together.

Initially attracted by the abundant parks, international cuisine, convenient transit, and fantastic entertainment –
it was the wonderful sense of community that we really fell for.

Love,
XO Condos

steps to everywhere

Where Toronto's most exciting neighbourhoods intersect.

XO overlooks a buzzing cityscape of eclectic urban amenities. Enjoy the best of Liberty Village, King West, Queen West and Parkdale because at kingxdufferin, you can have it all.

Liberty Village

Start your day with legendary blueberry pancakes from Mildred's Temple Kitchen. If you're feeling adventurous, make your way to Joe Rockhead's Indoor Rock Climbing. If you prefer taking it easy, stop by Liberty Village Park featuring a giant sculpture, children's playground, benches, and greenery. Don't skip Liberty Market Building, which is home to over 300,000 sq. ft. of revitalized space for retail, studio, and office tenants in a historical building. Plus, a King-Liberty pedestrian cycle bridge spanning from Douro Street to Western Battery Road is expected to open in summer 2019!

Queen West

Named one of the coolest streets in the world by Vogue, this neighbourhood is known for fantastic fashion, eclectic mom-and-pop shops, lovely parks, and excellent dining. Browse a myriad of stylish shopping, from high-end fashion to chic décor to vintage finds. Grab your selfie stick and walk Graffiti Alley, off Queen West and Spadina, where colourful walls showcase the work of the city's most remarkable street artists. Once you've worked up an appetite touring this brilliant area, pop into the beautifully designed Aloette restaurant for a modern take on a classic diner experience.

Parkdale

Home to renowned restaurants, indie cafés, art galleries, and sprawling parks, there's always something to do in Parkdale. Treat your sweet tooth at Glory Hole Doughnuts after getting your fast-food fill of greasy burgers and fries at the surprisingly vegan Doomie's. When you cannot eat one more bite, go for a walk along buzzing King Street West or the tranquil trails in Marilyn Bell Park.

meet your neighbours

Hey you! All the people seen in this brochure spread are real residents of the neighbourhoods surrounding XO

While creating XO, we observed a sense of community unlike anywhere else. At kingxdufferin, we asked local residents why they love where they live, and they told us about the diverse people, community events and activities, and connection to urban convenience. Here's what the featured residents had to say:

"I never want to leave this neighbourhood. I grew up here, and even though it has changed and grown a lot over the years, it's the only place I'll ever call home."

"kingxdufferin is not just an intersection of streets. It's an intersection of cultures, beliefs, industries, and just everything."

"It's connected. It's friendly. It's the sense of community. That's what I love most about where I live."

Trinity Bellwoods

Known as Toronto's hipster mecca, stop by Trinity for epic picnics, movie nights, yard sales, ice-skating, tobogganing, tree tours, and farmers' markets.

Plus, keep an eye out for the legendary albino squirrel.

Marilyn Bell Park

Featuring 1,200 metres of trails with breathtaking waterfront views, tennis courts, and manicured greenery,

Marilyn Bell is a destination for nature-lovers, bikers, joggers, four-legged furry friends and families who want to be outdoors.

Budapest Park

Walk along the Martin Goodman Trail, relax in the shade, explore the adjacent beach, or let your little ones run wild at the playground featuring toy dinosaurs, swings, a slide, climbing structure, and wading pool.

Dufferin-King Parkette

At XO you can enjoy the convenience of having a public parkette as your very own backyard.

Playtime with the kids will be a breeze, and for those nights you want a change of scenery, grab a picnic table or blanket and have dinner al fresco under the moonlight.

Living the green scene

Exhibition Place

Canada's largest entertainment venue offers 192 acres of mixed-use property, hosting trade shows, conferences, and the annual Canadian National Exhibition.

Better by the Lake

XO is uniquely positioned steps from everything one could desire, including beautiful Lake Ontario. Just a 15-minute walk from King's Dufferin, discover a mix of tranquil parkland, thrilling entertainment, and stunning views along the lakeshore. A hub of recreation and relaxation, you will love having this popular destination just moments from home.

BMO Field

Cheer on Toronto's soccer and football teams at this outdoor stadium, home to Toronto FC and the Argonauts.

Ontario Place

Visit Ontario Place and enjoy concerts, boating, volleyball, festivals, skating, movies at Cinesphere, and trails crisscrossing through the West Island and Trillium Park.

Echo Beach

This outdoor concert space features a real sand beach and views of downtown, making it arguably one of the best places to catch your favourite bands' live performances.

Toronto Island

Rent a bike, rollerblades, or a canoe to explore the islands, Centreville Amusement Park, Gibraltar Point Lighthouse, and William Meany Maze.

Sips n' Snacks

One of the best parts about moving into a new home is exploring your new neighbourhood and discovering your new favourite spots.

These are the must-try cafés just steps from XO.

Local Public Eatery 100-171 E Liberty St.

Take refuge in this laidback pub in Liberty Village. The warehouse-style exterior with brick and beam interior complement the neighbourhood. It's a local favourite serving dishes like flat-top seared burgers, all-day huevos rancheros, crispy pork belly served with charred street corn on a cob all accompanied by rotating taps of craft beer. Drop by and get in a game of shuffleboard along with a pint of your favourite brew!

Craig's Cookies 1537 Queen St. W

Welcome to cookie paradise. Owner and baker extraordinaire, Craig is a Newfoundland actor-turned-entrepreneur who has won numerous accolades for his incredible confections. Pairing beautifully with coffee or tea, try the classic chocolate chip cookies made with a recipe passed down through generations in Craig's family or go for more adventurous flavours such as Ferrer Rocher, Cadbury Mini Egg, Oreo, butter tart, and Nutella. In a space designed to look like his grandmother's kitchen, this café is brimming with Newfoundland nostalgia.

The Abbott 99 Spencer Ave.

Adorned with Canadian collectables and interesting antiques, this café is a great place to meet up with friends for coffee or lunch. The owners and managers all live within walking distance of the café, and were inspired to open it to give their neighbours an alternative place to hang out when they'd had enough of the bar scene. The name of the café and its vintage medical-themed décor are shout-outs to Anderson Ruffin Abbott, the first black doctor in Toronto who lived just down the street from where The Abbott café sits today.

Balzac's Liberty Village 43 Hanna Ave.

Named after the 19th century French novelist and coffee enthusiast Honoré de Balzac, this Canadian success story came into being after the idea for Balzac's Coffee was pitched on the television show, Dragon's Den. Founder Diana Olsen won over two venture capitalists who saw the company's potential and bought into the company. Inspired by Parisian cafés, visit Balzac's and see how art deco tiles and exposed brick walls create an atmosphere as delightful as the coffee served.

Foodie Favourites

Indulge in multicultural cuisine, creative cocktails, high-end dining, pub grub, and more. Whether you're going out with friends, having a date night with bae, or grabbing a bite to go, the options are endless (and delicious).

Glory Hole Doughnuts

1596 Queen St. W.
Must try: All of them
Previously a pastry chef at Buca, owner and baker Ashley Jacot De Boinod has introduced the city to a seasonal menu of ingenious doughnut flavours including lemon ricotta with an olive oil glaze, chocolate pistachio, and more.

Grand Electric

1330 Queen St. W.
Must try: Baja fish tacos
While foodies wait up to 3 hours to be seated at this popular joint, the tantalizing Mexican flavours, hip-hop tracks, and unpretentious atmosphere make it well worth the wait.

Cadillac Lounge

1296 Queen St. W.
Must try: Pulled pork wrap
Catch a live band on Cadillac Lounge's massive patio while enjoying cocktails and comfort food with your closest friends.

Dandy Lion

1198 Queen St. W.
Must try: Citrus, gold beet, yogurt salad
Trained by Susur Lee and Marc Thuet, Jason Carter is known as one of the city's most skillful chefs. At Dandy Lion, he offers a concise menu of delightful seasonal creations. Known for their great service and unique combination of flavours, this small, cozy restaurant serves surprising dishes.

Harry's Charbroiled

160 Springhurst Ave.
Must try: Banquet Burger
Distinguished chefs Grant van Gameren and Nate Young revamped this Parkdale staple, offering fresh, made-from-scratch, traditional diner dishes without pretense.

School

70 Fraser Ave.
Must try: Black n Blue Flapjacks
This bakery/café/bar/restaurant serves one of the city's best brunches. Choose from elaborate French toast, apple crumble pancakes, breakfast poutine, and more.

Tibet Kitchen

1544 Queen St. W.
Must try: Momos
In a neighbourhood that was once known as Little Tibet, treat yourself to incredible traditional Tibetan and Himalayan cuisine at Tibet Kitchen such as their famous momos. Enjoy indoor seating, the lovely patio, or order takeout and enjoy at home.

Get Your Tickets!

Which venue has the best events? Visit them all and decide for yourself. Offering concerts, parties, plays, readings, and more, there's an abundance of live entertainment everywhere.

An XO/Denial Collaboration

XO is thrilled to have commissioned renowned Canadian street artist Daniel Bombardier "Denial" (also known as D3N!@L) to create a 50ft. x 20ft. mural at kingxdufferin expressing our love for the neighbourhood. Having lived in the neighbourhood, Denial had firsthand inspiration to create an authentic piece that truly resonates with the local residents. The incredible piece is currently on display at the XO Presentation Centre and will be relocated to the residential amenity floor once complete to represent the eclectic creativity and vitality of this unique destination.

Denial has gained a global following over his decade-long career, over half a million Denial stickers are displayed in public places around the world. Denial's pop art style aims to push buttons and challenge viewers' perceptions of socioeconomic issues. His latest collection, Enjoy Denial, explores corporate imagery with a satirical twist, while the new XO mural injects colourful creativity into a community already brimming with it.

home & heritage

On the southwest corner of King & Dufferin, a stunning brick façade stands apart in the modern cityscape of Toronto. This area was known for its extensive railway network as early as the 1850s, causing industrial development to move westward in the 1880s.

In 1906, the Bank of British North America building was constructed at 1211 King St. W. Designed by architects

Ellis & Connery, its robustly Edwardian structure bordered the industrial zone to the east and the residential zone to the west. By the 1920s, the area became a flourishing industrial area. The Bank of British North America eventually turned into a BMO Bank of Montreal until it closed its doors in 2018.

The XO Condos sales centre is set to open in this beautiful edifice, conveniently situated where Liberty Village, King West, Queen West and Parkdale meet. Concrete columns invite you into the red brick clad building, featuring classical details such as two roof domes, in line with the typical architectural aesthetic of the early twentieth century. High coffered ceilings, art deco light fixtures and numerous windows contribute to an interior ambiance that is classic, bright, airy, and fresh.

The preservation of the unique character of this remarkable heritage building is a top priority and will remain a crown jewel at King & Dufferin.

Let's go back in time...

- 1850s Railway network expands
- 1880s Beginning of industrial development
- 1906 Bank of British North America is constructed
- 1910 Becomes BMO Bank of Montreal
- 1920s Massive industrial development in the area
- 1970s Artists discover area and move in

xO marks
the spot.

Stunning architecture collides past and future at a bustling intersection where iconic neighbourhoods intersect. Travelling pedestrians and charming streetcars whiz through the amenity-filled streets surrounding your home. It's more than a place, it's a feeling. Anything is possible when everything is at your doorstep.

Modern design complemented with classic brickwork, creates a contemporary ambiance that feels just right. Enter your urban lobby, watch the world pass from your spacious balcony, and take advantage of abundant amenities within and around your building.

This is your backyard. In addition to the private outdoor amenity space provided by XO Condos, you have access to a 20,000 sq. ft. public park just outside your doorstep. Discover lush urban landscaping with pathways that connect neighbourhoods, a playground that children adore, a splash pad in the summer months, and cozy picnic tables for dining, reading or simply people watching.

Dufferin-King Parkette

KIDS ZONE

The interactive Kids' Zone is designed to encourage curiosity, improve dexterity, free their imaginations, and help them socialize with other children in the community. Fully equipped to keep little minds engaged, it features an art room, reading room, movie hub and ball pit to use up any extra energy. There is also an outdoor play area for a good dose of fresh air and fun. Perfect for play dates or hosting your child's birthday party. This valuable amenity brings all the summer fun of a park, indoors right in your building for year-round activities.

LOUNGE & DINING ROOM

The dining room and social lounge are ideal places for celebrating life's happy occasions with your loved ones or hosting your infamous Superbowl party. Take your pick of chic seating around a long table, at the bar, the spacious lounge, or a more intimate setting in one of several cozy nooks which all feel like an extension of your living room. Take the party outside for a night under the stars on your stylish outdoor terrace.

SPIN ROOM

Going beyond the typical studio offered by most condos, XO presents the Spin Room featuring one of fitness's most popular forms of exercise. Get your pulse pumping with an entire sport and fitness area dedicated to your health and wellness. Improve your cardio, tone your body and clear your mind as you challenge yourself spinning and rocking out to high energy playlists.

THINK TANK

Get focused and get ahead on your work or school projects in the Think Tank. Whether you need a comfortable space to meet with colleagues or an escape from every day distractions to study, the Think Tank is the place to get things done. Call it your personal home office or lounge to ponder great ideas, it features floor-to-ceiling windows that offer natural light, high-speed Wi-fi and an outdoor seating area for those warm sunny days to put your feet up and answer emails.

XO Amenities
